

Tinned tomatoes suppliers reintroduce rationing on retailers

On June 18, 2021, the British press revealed that tinned tomato suppliers have reintroduced supermarket rationing as stocks run low following three years of poor harvests. Companies are warning of a global shortage of steel sheets to make cans for food production.

LER MAIS

EU: renewal process of approval of Glyphosate

New Genomic Techniques can promote the sustainability of agricultural production.

LER MAIS

SIG upgrades high-speed small aseptic carton filling machine

Filling lines that take flexibility to another level.

LER MAIS

Carbon soars past EUR 58/t to fresh record high

Prices of allowances on EU ETS has soared almost 140% since January.

LER MAIS

